 FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1906.

Barre and Montpelier base ball divorce hearing comes off tonight, with neither side really wishing for a bill.

Jacob Riis is now nominating Theodore Roosevelt for mayor of New York when he gets through with his president's job.

At least, there is one way to get money out of the Standard Oil trust, and that is to write about it in good, scorching, magazine English. We know it, because Ida H. Tarbell has just purchased a magnificent estate at Easton, Conn., out of her pen-earnings on this same subject.

TOBACCO USING AMONG SCHOOL CHILDREN.

There seems to be no concerted move among the school principals of the state against tobacco-using by scholars, but the fight which was instituted by Principal Thomas of the Burlington high school is certain to gain supporters and increase in influence. With a keen insight into boy life and with the knowledge where to strike him at his weakest point, Principal Thomas started his attack in athletics. Realizing the boys' interest in base ball, foot ball and the various other sports, he no doubt reasoned that there was the vital point of attack. And like a military man he directed his attention there by declaring that users of tobacco would be barred from school athletic teams beginning with February 1. The first result of the promulgation of the order has been the formation of what the founders have seen fit to call the "smokers" team, that is, those who are not willing to promise the complete taboing of tobacco in various forms. Thus the gauntlet is thrown down between the "smokers" and the faculty, with the non-smoking element of the school as passive witnesses. The results of the first clash are not yet fully worked out, but it is hard to prophesy for Principal Thomas a complete victory.

What may be gained out of the movement, however, will be a better standard of example for the younger scholars, those who are yet in the grades below the high school; and therein much good will come from the effort. It is among the younger public school children that the use of tobacco is particularly to be deplored. There are youngsters who are scarcely in their teens (oftentimes they have not reached that distinction) strutting about and puffing out clouds of smoke. They are to be seen in every city and town. If the force of a better example is of any value in remedying a bad condition of affairs, the efforts of Principal Thomas of the Burlington high school will not have been entirely in vain, even though he does not succeed in wiping out the use of tobacco among his high school pupils.

INSURED EMPLOYEES FREE.

The Equitable Has Given Away 900 Policies for $1,000 Each.

New York, Feb. 2.—The fact that the Equitable Life Assurance society has for the last four years insured free the lives of its 900 employees for $1,000 each, became known yesterday. On this account the society has paid out $17,000.
 Paul Morion, president of the society, in speaking of the matter said:

"Whether the system transgresses any law is a question for the lawyers to answer. It is a common practice of all large corporations nowadays to carry insurance upon the lives of all of their employees."

Vice president Gage E. Tarbell, originator of the system in the Equitable declared that when an employee died it did away with the necessity of his fellow employees contributing to a fund for his widow or other dependent relative.

The average cost of the insurance to the Equitable was $15 a year per employee.

YALE ROWS ANNAPOLIS.

Race with Middies Will Probably Take
 May 28.
 Annapolis, Md., Feb. 2.—Richard Glendon of Boston, who has coached the U. S. Naval Academy crews so successfully for two seasons, is here, and will begin work at the candidates for the eights at the machines at once. He will stay in Annapolis until June.
 It has been settled that Yale will send a crew to Annapolis again this season, though it was in doubt for some time.
 The race will probably be rowed on the last Saturday in May.
 The other races are double-headers with Georgetown, Columbia and Pennsilvania.

OUR JAIL POPULATION.

House of Correction Received 72 Prisoners Last Month.

Rutland, Feb. 2.—During the month just closed 71 men and one woman had their names placed on Superintendent D. L. Morgan's register at the house of correction. This number exceeds the number for the previous month by 10 although the contributions from the large towns in the northern part of the state were noticeably decreased. Burlington sending only one third of her December number.

Rutland holds the record for the largest number of commitments, there being 70 to her credit. St. Albans sent eight.
 Six people came from Bennington, five from Windsor, four from Rockingham, three from Essex and the same number from Burlington, and two each from Poultney, Vergennes, Northfield, and Fair Haven. The following towns each sent one representative: Hyde Park, Poult-ney, Hartford, Franklin, Chelsea, Barre, Randolph, Williston, Bolton, Montpelier, Orwell, Woodstock, Groton, Proctor, Plymouth and Hardwick.

Practically all of the prisoners for January were laborers or tradesmen, one claiming to be a musician. Twenty-three of the prisoners were married. Six could not read or write and all but that number professed some form of religion.
 There were 42 who were not natives of Vermont. From Mexico, Austria and Scotland there came one and two Irish and the same number of Swedes were jailed. One man is in for his 16th term.
 The most common offenses and the number committed for the same are as follows: Intoxication 26; breach of the peace, 30; tramping, 11.

SCOTIA CLUB BANQUET.

One Hundred Covers Laid at St. Johnsbury Last Evening.

St. Johnsbury, Feb. 2.—One hundred covers were laid in Pythian hall last night for the annual banquet of the Scotia club. The menu was in Scotch and contained numerous quotations from the hand of Burns. At the post prandial exercises, Judge Walter P. Smith presided and responses were given by Rev.
 Dr. Edward D. Eaton, R. Burns, Mr.
 Gammel of Danville, the Rev. S. G.

Barnes, who gave personal reminiscences of the late George Macdonald, and Alex-
